Now more than ever is a very exciting time to be in seed industry. Though we face many challenges globally — water shortages and a ballooning population — the research and advancements being released from the agri-food and lifesciences sectors contain solutions for the path forward. A dialogue with key European industry associations indicated that a vehicle was needed to communicate these very important messages, which lead to the launch of this flagship publication for the European seed industry.

It meets the needs of the 10 billion euro seed industry in Europe, and endorsed by the European seed association 'Euroseeds', Seed World Europe's goal is to engage readers on both EU and global seed issues. The magazine explores topics such political or regulatory initiatives, seed trade issues, market access, product pipelines for both seed and seed treatments and other topics that represent the interests of those active in research, breeding, production and marketing of seeds of agricultural, horticultural and ornamental plant species.

With tailored, seed-focused content, Seed World Europe brings specialised media that provides unparalleled value to the industry, our readers and our advertisers. Our content is comprised of far more than just articles: it's a total package that fuses current issues with compelling analysis in addition to an array of digital offerings that take our audience to the heart of the stories that matter.

Both the seed industry and world of communications are changing at a rapid pace, and that's why Seed World Europe is committed to being a multifaceted media platform: web, magazine, mobile and video provide multiple channels through which to consume practical information, ideas and solutions that matter to your business.

With multiple touch points, our readers can access seed industry information via our video interview series, website and digital magazine PLUS the familiar medium of the print edition of the magazine. That is why advertising opportunities across the broad media group of Seed World Europe products can help you reach this lucrative audience.

Successful advertisers understand just how important it is to utilize an integrated approach, and the multiple channels offered by Seed World Europe Media represent a proven opportunity for increased success and market penetration.
